

Margarita Escobar

Margarita Escobar “Maggie” Executive Assistant

AltaMed Health Services Corporation, Government Relations Department

Maggie Escobar has been employed at AltaMed Health Services since August of 1995. Ms. Escobar is a Representative of the AltaMed Wellness Committee, currently serves as Vice President of Education and Club Secretary of AltaMed’s Toastmaster Club 5365865. Ms. Escobar was recently appointed as the Toastmasters District 100, Area Director for Section 4, where she oversees four Toastmasters Clubs including AltaMed, Smart and Final, EMC 20, and The Los Angeles County Department of Children and Family Services (DCFS). Maggie Escobar is also an Ambassador for the AltaMed GIVES internal program and was a former representative of AltaMed’s Organizational Development Team (ODT). Ms. Escobar has coordinated the AltaMed Health Services Annual Toy Drive for the past 19 years, where she requests donations from AltaMed peers and community vendors that generate toys for distribution at AltaMed’s Los Angeles and Orange Counties Medical and Dental clinics, Youth Services, and HIV programs.

Ms. Escobar holds a Master of Science Degree in Healthcare Management, a B.A. in Organizational Communication and Public Relations. She earned an A.A. degree in Liberal Arts, May 2007; a second A.A. degree in Communications, and Certificate of Completion in Speech Communication, May 2010.

Ms. Escobar was an employee of the year 1996, has been nominated every year for various “Core Value Awards” and received the AltaMed Health Services “Commitment to Teamwork” 2011 award. Maggie Escobar was nominated by Speaker Emeritus Fabian Nuñez, for the Spanish newspaper La Opinion’s “Mujeres Destacadas,” and received Speaker Emeritus Fabian Nuñez’s Community Partner of the Year “Women of Distinction Award,” March 2007. Maggie recently received the KNX 10.70 News Radio Helpful Honda Hero Award, 2019.

Maggie Escobar is the mother of 4 children, one son, three daughters, and is the proud grandmother of a four-year-old. Ms. Escobar enjoys all genres of music, karaoke, hiking, swimming, bowling, bike riding, and Toastmasters.